WHY ACFC WEST: "To be able to put together the best possible team based on the requirements of the project.

Sometimes a knowledgeable buyer or a gifted fabric painter can make the difference between a good looking show and one that is outstanding.

The amount of talent in our industry is staggering, and yet somehow being on an ACFC set feels more like collaborating on a personal project than being at work.

Not least of all, that C in ACFC that says Canadian!"

FIRST FILM JOB: "Taking a Supermodel shopping at Leone's, Holt Renfrew, and Boboli - unfortunately a producer and the production manager holding the purse strings came along."

FIRST SHOW Sabrina, The Teenage Witch with Melissa Joan Hart and Ryan Reynolds as her love interest before he was Alanis's.

BEST FILM EXPERIENCE: "26 episodes of a Western drama set in the 1870's and filmed in Cranbrook and Bordertown which may sound like a sentence but for a costumer, Dead Man's Gun was a dream job.

With a fabulous crew of cutters, sewers, and set costumers who became experts on lacing Victorian corsets and fitting frock coats, we created a different look every week, and a look that was a departure from the Hollywood standard.

The producers made it clear that they wanted a show that reflected the reality of the time in the props, sets and costumes.

Finding fabric, buttons and lace of the period in Vancouver was a huge challenge but a background in Theatre cultivates resourcefulness as well as a great network of costume enthusiasts who are willing to contribute to the cause as long as it's honourable and "period correct".
