ALERT ALERT ALERT ALERT

Important Security Guard Licencing Information

1. PLEASE ENSURE YOU HAVE COMPLETED YOUR TRAINING AND LICENCING REQUIREMENTS BY JUNE 1, 2009 OR YOU WILL NOT BE ELIGIBLE TO WORK AS A SECURITY GUARD!!!!
2. Basic Standard Training (BST Level 1 & 2 - 64 hours) has been replaced with Basic Security Training (40 hours). This new standard will be the recognized training for the security guard industry in British Columbia. The current BST 1 and 2 courses will remain valid. The Justice Institute of British Columbia (JIBC) is offering this training on-line. The course is also available through other approved training facilities. A list of approved training facilities is available on the JIBC website. Got to the following website for more information:

3. If you feel you cannot complete the training and licencing requirements by June 1, 2009. You may apply for a TEMPORARY LICENCE. This licence is a one time only 90-day under supervision security guard licence available to individuals who have not completed the Basic Security Training. HOWEVER, holders of such a licence MUST be supervised by an individual who holds an unrestricted security guard licence. As such, this option may not be practical for film workers. Applications can be found at the following website:
