ELECTRIC

Any individual working within the Electrics department who is required under the Electrical Safety Code of British Columbia to hold:

- a) a Journeyman Electrical Worker Qualification or a Full Entertainment Ticket, shall receive an additional Three Dollars ($3.00) per hour, as part of their hourly rate, for the time their ticket is required.
- b) a Limited Entertainment Ticket, shall receive an additional Two Dollars ($2.00) per hour, as part of their hourly rate, for the time their ticket is required.

These payments are required up to the staffing requirements mandated by the Electrical Safety Code of British Columbia.

First Aid:

Persons with first aid qualifications other than First Aid/Craft Service Technicians, who are utilized for their first aid ticket to meet the criteria applicable under the Workers Compensation Act of British Columbia, shall receive, for the time their ticket is required, a minimum of One Dollar and Fifty Cents ($1.50) per hour in addition to their scale or negotiated rate.

Note: If required to perform their first aid duties during their lunch break, the First Aid Attendant will be paid accordingly.

Short Term Upgrades:

If a Technician is required to perform work in a higher category for two or more hours, the Technician shall be paid at the scale rate of the higher category for all work performed in the higher category. However, in no case shall the actual rate paid in the higher category be less than one dollar ($1.00) per hour more than the prevailing rate of the Technician. All overtime provisions, premiums, penalties and benefits shall apply to the higher rate in effect.

Rates for Third and Subsequent Seasons of Canadian Television Series:

Lag rates are available for live-action television series which are eligible for funding from the Canada Media Fund and which commence principal photography after April 1, 2016 ("Eligible Television Series").

At the option and notification of the Producer during pre-production on the 3rd season of an Eligible Television Series and no later than 15 business days before the commencement of principal photography:

The scale minimum wages in the third (3rd) and subsequent seasons of an Eligible Television Series shall lag by one (1) period on the applicable negotiated wage scales for that television series, provided that the wage scale rates in the third (3rd) season of the Eligible Television Series are not lower than the "Low Budget Features & Television" rates in effect at the time of the second (2nd) season of the series.
